2019/20 project manager for the DBB in the “Easybasket in Europe” ERASMUS+ project.

In his session Tim will speak about the DBB’s strategy to connect schools with Basketball, their return to sport after the pandemic and their latest project with 33.000 elementary school kids in one week.

Tim Brentjes
DBB-Manager
Youth and School Sports

Project Manager of Sport digital ALBA Berlin since September 2020.

Responsible for the project of the „ALBAthek“ which is trying to implement a connection between the digital world and the analog world of sports.

What exactly is the „ALBAthek“ ?

With the ALBAthek ALBA Berlin is trying to provide on demand games or even complete sports lessons to teachers, kindergarden educators or neighborhood managers to counteract the lack of movement in the childage and during the pandemic.

Furthermore the „ALBAthek“ even offers the possibility for teacher, educators, ... to educate themselves via webinar sessions or even in-person education.

«FIBA MINI-BASKETBALL PROJECT OF AWBB»

Hervé is the Technical Director of AWBB since 2013, in charge of the officiating development for the Federation (particularly youth referees).

Sélim is employee of AWBB's technical department since 2013, in charge of communication and marketing for the Federation.

Both are members of the AWBB Mini-Basketball working group.

«FIBA Mini-Basketball project of AWBB» (Association Wallonie-Brussels of Basketball) is a project supported by FIBA Europe's Youth Development Fund. We initiated our project since 2013 with specific focus on the mini-basketball's trainers with a long-term vision to bring the mini-basketball community to a better level.

We will explain what are the goals of our specific formations also how we continue to develop the mini-basketball through special events.
